Tuesday 26th April

Let's talk rubbish!
We'll play games,
make crafts, and learn about the Maori Gods that look after our environment

Wednesday 20th April

Did you know New Zealand has over 200 kinds of Native birds and most of them only live in this country? To honor that, today is bird day

Wednesday 27th April

Now we know more about rubbish, let's reuse items and make our trash into treasure, then we can have an exhibit to show off our creations

Thursday 21st April

Tree's are one of the most important things on this planet, so today's crafts and activities are all about our New Zealand trees

Thursday 28th April

Today we'll continue with our art pieces for the exhibit tonight, or if you weren't here yesterday it's not too late to start

Friday 22nd April

Today is Earth Day and we'll be focusing on water conservation, playing fun games to learn how to conserve water and why we should

Friday 29th April

Let's finish up with a trip to Shepherd's Park. A play on the playground, a picnic lunch, and a scavenger hunt
